- Record Lectures for Moran CORE
 - Pre-recording a lecture with a corresponding PowerPoint can supplement the pre-work you assign, and can convey important but straightforward material that is part of the learning objectives
 - You can also record short updates with new material to supplement lectures that have been previously recorded and archived on Moran CORE
 - Instructions:
 - Ask Ethan Peterson (ethan.peterson@utah.edu) to send you a link for the University Zoom account, which will automatically start recording
 - Share your screen and open PowerPoint in presenter mode, then begin your presentation
 - When the recording is finished, Ethan can help edit the recording if needed and post it to Moran CORE with a shareable link
